

career prep journey

asmartplace®

What will I learn & Where am I going?

This course will encourage students to identify their career path according to their personality and preferences. By the end of this course, students should be able to make informed decisions about their academic and occupational future.

SMART CAREERS IN NORTH ALABAMA

How am I an extension of Huntsville/Madison County history?

This unit will focus the numerous smart career choices available in North Alabama and how the region has played a huge role in Alabama history – also highlighting Alabama’s original capital, Huntsville/Madison County.

CAREER PATHWAYS & CLUSTERS

What are my best career options?

There are several industries; however, some occupations fit better than others. By assessing your personality, there are a few occupations that would be best for you.

CAREER COACHING

What will help me in the hiring process?

Cover letters, resumés, and interview etiquette are important in attaining a desired position. Master these skills in order to make yourself an attractive candidate.

MONEY MANAGEMENT

Making Appropriate Decisions with Money

Once you attain the occupation of your dreams, how will you manage your financial life? Learning to manage your money at an early age is important!

